

[EN] Till To Bitter End

Till To Bitter End

Life's best years are slipping away,
but we keep on drinking night and day.

The only thing we really know:
life without beer is just no go.

Wine, gin, whiskey, ale and stout,
don't worry if our livers shout.

And when it's time to say goodbye:
too late to regret, too late to cry.

Life's best years are slipping away,
but we keep on drinking night and day.

The only thing we really know:
life without beer is just no go.

Wine, gin, whiskey, ale and stout,
don't worry if our livers shout.

And when it's time to say goodbye:
too late to regret, too late to cry.

Life's best years are slipping away,
but we keep on drinking night and day.

The only thing we really know:
life without beer is just no go.

Wine, gin, whiskey, ale and stout,
don't worry if our livers shout.

And when it's time to say goodbye:

too late to regret, too late to cry.
